Functions and Responsibilities of FQAC

FQAC shall function as the unit responsible for Quality Assurance (QA) within the Faculty of engineering Technology that includes six academic departments. Functions and responsibilities of the FQAC shall include amongst others, the following as defined by the Senate Sub Committee on QA of the OUSL established through University By -Law Number 14.

- Coordination of all QA related activities in the Faculty.
- Facilitate the implementation of QA reviews/Monitoring follow up action in the Faculty.
- Provide guidance and monitoring of Department level QA activities.
- Share good practices between academic departments.
- Conduct at Faculty level QA related awareness programmes for staff members & students of the Faculty.
- Prepare an annual action plan for the Faculty and obtain approval from Senate Sub Committee on QA before commencement of a calendar year and implementation.
- Reporting about QA activities at Department, Faculty Board and the Senate Sub Committee on QA meetings.
- Conduct/facilitate QA related research work for the Faculty.
- Dissemination of QA outcomes where appropriate through prospectus, Website, Annual Report etc.