A word to students

We welcome you to the Bachelor of Education in Special Needs Education [B.ED(SNE)] Programme. As this Programme is conducted in the distance mode you will have only limited opportunities of meeting or contacting members of the academic staff. Therefore it is essential that you read this handbook thoroughly and understand the procedures for overcoming difficulties you may face during the programme.

Every attempt is made to ensure the validity of the information given here but due to policy or financial reasons it is possible that this information may be changed or revised later.

Especially, it will be entirely your responsibility to attend the scheduled day schools, complete assignments and teaching practice by due dates, according to the instructions given in this book. Remember that you will receive other notices from the Open University only if schedules given here are changed.

We wish you all success in the [B.ED(SNE)] programme.

*Educational Technology course (SNU6620) includes special methods in teaching and for this the students can select only one subject from the following.

Language (Sinhala/Tamil/English)

Science

Mathematics

Integrated Subjects of the Primary Education

It would be more appropriate to select the same area, selected for special methods in teaching for teaching practice also.

However all students should learn All Following Areas of Children with Special Educational Needs in addition to the above subjects. The supplementary materials related to the above areas will be provided to all students.

1. Teaching Children with Visual Impairments
2. Teaching Children with Hearing Impairments
3. Teaching Children with Intellectual Disabilities
4. Teaching Children with Learning Disabilities

*Project

Each student is expected to initiate an action research project on children with special educational needs in the school that they select for teaching practice.

5.2 Study system

The main method of instruction is the distance learning mode. Apart from the printed material, arrangements are made to use audio and video tapes.

5.3 Day Schools

The main aim of conducting day schools are to provide an opportunity to solve the problems that arise through distance education mode and also to acquire more knowledge regarding the facts included in the relevant lesson units. These day schools will be held either during weekdays or during the weekends. Your attendance in these day schools will help you to study the course materials and also give you an opportunity to forward your study problems to the staff. Please note that these day schools are also used to provide information about the programme when required.

During the day schools which are conducted in the form of discussions, work sessions and seminars, it is expected to discuss the printed lessons and discuss students' problems.

All day school sessions are organized as interactive sessions. This provides opportunities for the student to learn by engaging in many activities including group work and presentations. Therefore, students will be able to actively participate and share experiences during these interactive day schools.

Detailed information regarding these day will be provided later.

The day school topics and time table will be provided separately.

5.4 Tutorial Sessions

Tutorial sessions are conducted for this programme in addition to the day schools. Problems in printed course materials are discussed and instructions required by the students about the programme are provided in these sessions.

A tutorial session of five hours for the course SNU5535 and four hours for the course SNU5540 will be conducted. In addition a tutorial of 3 hour sessions for each the rest of the courses will also be conducted.

The tutor who conducts these sessions will decide, on which days these sessions should be held and inform the students. Your participation and the pre-preparation, which is expected by the tutor, will ensure the success of these sessions.

5.5 Audio Video Learning Materials

In addition to the above mentioned methods, there are number of audio-video materials of special needs education. These learning materials will help you to understand the problems in the modules. You will be able to watch these audio video materials personally or in groups in the Audio Video Resource Centre of the Open University Library. Also selected videos will be shown during someday schools.

6.0 Evaluation

6.1 Aspects of Evaluation

Evaluation consists of three parts which all are compulsory

- (a). Continuous assessment through assignments.
- (b). Written Examination conducted at the end of academic year.
- (c). Evaluation of Teaching Practice

6.2 Assignments for Continuous assessment

Please refer the Table 1 for details.

Please note following instructions

- All assignments are compulsory
- Should be taken at least “C” grade for each given assignment.
- The average of given assignment should be at least “C” which is called as Overall Continuous Assessment Marks (OCAM).
- If the grade according to the OCAM is “ C” only your assignment marks will be considered to decide the final mark.

(All assignments and instructions will be given at the time of registration.)

6.3 Calculating the final marks

The Overall Assessment Mark (Z%) of a student in respect of any course, shall be based on the Overall Continuous Assessment Mark (X%) and the mark obtained at the Final Examination (Y%) and shall be computed as follows:

If $Y \geq 40$, then $Z = (0.4X + 0.6 Y)$

If $Y < 40$, then $Z = Y$

Table 1 : Obtaining Eligibility to sit for the final Examination

Those students those who are unable or fail to get required OCAM (“C” grade) can still sit for the final examination but OCAM will not be considered in deciding final marks.

6.5 Submission of Assignments

The last dates of submission of assignments will be informed. You have to submit the duly completed assignments only to Colombo Regional Centre. They will be received by the assignment receiving office in the Education Faculty building.

Assignments would not be accepted after the last date of submission.

Refrain from sending assignments by post.

6.4.1 When submitting assignments, use the folder (which you will receive at the time of registration) and also do not forget to obtain a receipt.

6.4.2 The Department of Special Needs Education will take action to return the marked assignments.

6.4.3 If you face problems with respect to assignments, contact the Department of Special Needs

Education. In the case of not receiving marked assignments, it will be your responsibility to collect them from the department or from your centre.

- 6.4.4 All assignment marks would be handed over to the Data Processing Unit immediately after marking. The Department is not in a position to act on any appeals made regarding assignments.
- 6.4.5 When submitting assignments enter the following details in the first page.
 - 1. Name
 - 2. Registration number
(enter the registration number in every page)
 - 3. Centre
 - 4. Address
 - 5. Course code and the assignment number
(Eg. SNU2230 Assignment No. 2)
- 6.4.6 Present the assignments typed or in clear handwriting.
- 6.4.7 Leave a margin of 4 cm on the left side of the paper for the examiner to write comments

6.4.8 Answers to all questions of a single assignment should be written and submitted together. Refrain from submitting answers to questions of a single assignment separately.

6.4.9 Refrain from attaching other letters to the assignments.

Important

Complete and submit assignments according to the instructions on or before the due date. If you do not do so, you will not be able to obtain eligibility to sit the final examination and will have to complete the courses for which you have not obtained eligibility in the subsequent academic year. (You will be required to pay additional tuition fees for these courses.)

6.4.10 Grades for assignments would be allocated as stated below

Range of Marks Z%	Grade
85 - 100	A+
70 - 84	A
65 - 69	A-
60 - 64	B+
55 - 59	B

6.4.11 Assignments are integral part of the assessment process. Hence they must be original work of the student. Student will be given a “E” Grade (Fail) if any act of dishonesty on their part is found in preparing and submitting the assignment.

6.5 Written examination

6.5.1. There is one written examinations that is final examination at the end of the academic year.

There will be a final written examination for all courses except SNU6822 &SNU6826.

Answer scripts of this programme would not be re-scrutinised for whatever reason.

6.5.2 online application For Final Examination

Students who wish to sit an examination in an academic year should apply online through ‘MyOUSL’ two months prior to the 1st date of examination specifying the required details.

6.6 Teaching Practice Stage 1

This consists of two phases.

- i. Supervision and evaluation by a master teacher in the school you teach.
- ii. Supervision and evaluation by a university lecturer in a school (special school or a school which has a special unit or an inclusive setup) selected by the university.

6.6.1 Duration

Stage I (Continuous Assessments)

The teaching practice stage I consists of ten (10) weeks. This covers

- i. Teaching Practice over a minimum duration of 08 weeks (9-12 teaching periods per week) under taken by the students in their respective schools under the supervision of a master teacher. Evaluation of 05 lessons will be done by a master teacher.

And

- ii. Teaching Practice over a minimum period duration of 02 weeks (9-12 teaching periods per week) undertaken by the students in a school where special needs education unit is available or an inclusive setup or in a special school under the supervision of a master teacher. Those who complete stage 1 will only be eligible for Stage 2

However during the whole period of teaching practice stage I candidate should be remained everyday in selected school till school over. The University bears no responsibility in this regard.

Stage II (Final Examination)

This covers teaching practice undertaken by the student during 02 teaching periods in an arranged school under the supervision of a university lecturer or specialist in special needs education.

It is only if you have completed stage I successfully that you are called for stage II.

A University Lecturer or expert of Special Needs Education would evaluate two periods at a school nominated by him/her. You are required to submit the lesson note books – duly signed and commented on by the supervisor – used in Stage 1 to the Lecturer who evaluate stage 2.

6.6.2. Postponement of Teaching Practice

If it is likely that you are unable to complete teaching practice in this academic year, do not register for teaching practice.

If you register for teaching practice and then do not complete it you will have to register for teaching practice in a subsequent year. You will then be considered as a repeat student.

After registering for teaching practice you can withdraw within two months of registration and re-register in a subsequent academic year as a new student.

6.6.3 Details form

At the time of registration you are required to complete two copies of the teaching practice information form and hand them over.

After the completion of each stage of teaching practice you have to obtain a letter of completion from your supervisor, and keep them in safe custody.

After registration check your student record book to verify whether the course code for teaching practice (SNU6826) is entered there.

6.6.4 Selecting subjects

You are required to select a subject or two and teach ten periods per week. If you select one subject it has to be taught in two grades. If you select two subjects, they can be taught in the same grade.

6.6.5 Lesson notes and time tables

For Stage 1, you have to prepare 10 lesson notes per week for the subject/ subjects selected until the completion of 10 weeks. For this purpose only C.R. books, should be used. A book should be used for each grade and each subject. The pages of the books and the lesson notes should be numbered. A content page should give the sequence of lesson notes.

You will be informed about the name and address of the master teacher who will supervise Teaching Practice - Stage 1 in due course.

As soon as you receive the information send a copy of your class time table indicating teaching practice periods to the master teacher.

If you happen to take leave during the teaching practice period inform the master teacher beforehand.

6.6.6 Nature of Supervision

During stage 1, the Master Teacher will supervise and evaluate five periods and send the marks to the department. If the master teacher does not visit your school within two weeks of the commencement of stage 1, inform the relevant Co-ordinator in the Department.

6.6.7 Calculation of final marks for teaching practice

This is calculated as follows.

- i. 40% of the average of the marks for the best five lessons evaluated by the master teacher.
- ii. 60% of the average of the marks for the two periods evaluated by a Lecturer.

Teaching practice should be completed according to the rules and regulations stated in this handbook. It would be your responsibility to complete teaching practice successfully.

Please Note:

Applicants who are not teachers should required to bring the following letters when they are called for the registration.

- (a) A letter from the employer to the effect that the applicant can be granted leave during the 10 weeks period of teaching practice (SNU6826) stage I.
- (b) With regard to the necessary documents, further information will be provided after the selection.

7.0 Award

In deciding the award, the assignments, teaching practice and the final examinations are taken into consideration. The award is presented in four levels: Pass, Second Class (Lower Division), Second Class (Upper Division) and First Class (Hons.). A candidate who does not appear for the written and practical examinations at the first opportunity given is not considered for First Class (Hons.)

Unless you complete the teaching practice in the academic year you first register for it, the highest award you will receive for teaching practice is a 'C' pass.

You need to get “A ‘grade for teaching practice to obtain First class in addition to the other requirements for a First class.

You need to get a “B+ ‘grade for teaching practice to obtain Second class (Upper Division) in addition to the other requirements for a Second class (Upper Division)

You need to get a “B ‘grade for teaching practice to obtain Second class (Lower Division)in addition to the other requirements for a Second class (Lower Division).
