

CVW6803 Industrial Training

Level	6
Course Code	CVW6803
Course Title	Industrial Training (Civil-undergraduate)
Credit value	8
Core/Optional	Core (Civil)
Course Aim/s	Aim of this course is to expose learners to gain comprehensive practical exposure in basic and advanced practices in the field of civil engineering, adhering to environmental, social, ethical, health and safety practices, while gaining self-confidence
Course Learning Outcomes (CLO):	At the completion of this course student will be able to: CLO1: Practice as an engineering professional including the technical application of basic and advanced civil engineering principles. CLO2: Comprehensively communicate orally and technically. CLO3: Identify and apply safety measures in construction industry. CLO4: Explain the role of the engineer, engineering and interact with other professional groups, organizations and practice professional ethics in industry. CLO5: Identify shortcomings in designs and construction materials/ techniques and to provide alternative solutions. CLO6: Ability to manage subordinates effectively and to manage projects effectively using project management tools and techniques.