

DMY4102 Group Project

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Level                           | 4  |
| Course Code                     | DMY4101/DMY4102  |
| Course Title                    | Group Project (Mechanical/Mechatronics Engineering )   |
| Credit value                    | 1  |
| Core/Optional                   | Core   |
| Course Aim/s                    | Aim of this course is to instill in learners the ability to investigate problems and/or issues by following a methodical and a shared approach, to discover the required areas of knowledge in providing sustainable solutions the problems.   |
| Course Learning Outcomes (CLO): | At the completion of this course student will be able to: CLO1: Apply concepts and principles in a related area of study; analyse information and suggest solutions to selected problems CLO2: Communicate successfully, the results of analysis and arguments to specialist and non-specialist audiences. CLO3: Exercise responsibilities as an individual and as a team. CLO4: Display qualities and transferable skills as well as subject specific skills necessary for employment, carry out further training and to manage their own learning |
| Content                         | The content is based on prior learning and information researched.   |